

LONELY PAMPHLETEER REVIEW

"[L]iberty of the press is the right of the lonely pamphleteer... as much as of the large metropolitan publisher..."

LPR At Night

FEBRUARY 26, 2006 --

G Bar and Lounge had its official launch party February 22. And LPR stopped by the evening of what was once generally known as George Washington's birthday.

The crowd included publicists Briege McGarrity (celebrating her birthday), Renata Lorenc, and Veltis Harrattan.

And LPR spotted Scorpio (Larisa) of Gemini and Scorpio in the crowd but couldn't attend her event, next evening in lower Manhattan, after performances of one-act plays, including a play by the late Susan Sontag, at public space 122.

And lots of interesting people, including Normandi Brown, co-founder and managing director of Cinema Incentive Partners, which produces and finances films and TV programs, and actress Janet Miranda.
